Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Westminster Play: Its Actors and Its Visitors It is not with any idea that I can do justice to my subject, but merely with a desire to add my mite of loving applause to Westminster's glory, that I have been induced, while sitting alone in my room on this night, when all that I have endeavoured to picture in the following pages is going on in reality, to beguile my solitude by looking over and bringing into shape a few ideas which I have, either while at school or since I left, scribbled down in commemoration of the Play - the great era in a Westminster's life. As it is only for my schoolfellows, past and present, that this trifle is intended, I make no apology for the use of terms which will not be understood except by them; but I must, at the same time, pray their forbearance in regard to any errors which may be found in it, hoping they will pardon its numerous defects, in consideration that my difficult...
