The Integrated Child Development Services: A Flagship Adrift

By K.R. Venugopal

Konark Publication, New Delhi, 2012. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 203pp. In this rights-based study of the ICDS programme sponsored by the Council for Social Development, New Delhi, Venugopal holds a mirror up to the way this flagship programme of the Government of India is faring and highlights its serious unmet expectations in implementation. These include inadequate enrollment of pregnant women, nursing mothers, children and adolescent girls who have a right to the ICDS services; grave cases of nutrition interruptions over extended periods; questionable quality of nutrition supplied; compromised growth monitoring; failure of convergence in health services including immunization and provision of crucial nutrients; grave inadequacies in training that impact adversely pre-school education and thus children's right to education and adolescent girls; and gross inadequacies of infrastructure and exploitative conditions of service affecting the effectiveness of anganwadi workers. The study addresses all these issues and makes comprehensive recommendations calling for sensitive changes in the structure of the programme. A call is made for greater involvement of the PRIs and primary stakeholders in the programme. This whistle-blowing study distinguishes itself for its readiness to pinpoint the prevalence of corruption in the programme and the practice of discrimination against the dalits in some...
