Reviews

A whole new eBook with a brand new point of view. It is definitely simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the publication. I am just pleased to explain how this is the greatest ebook i have read during my very own daily life and could be he best ebook for possibly.

In reading prayers the chaplain is not at liberty to curtail the services of the church, but he must read the whole without change or mutilation, with the litany and commandments as is usual on Sunday mornings. The chaplain is not required to baptize children in the workhouse except under circumstances which would justify the administration of baptism in a private house-- nor is he required to church women who may be confined in the workhouse. The children should be baptized in the parish church, and the mothers should be churched, there also. The pauper inmates should be allowed to receive the holy communion at the parish church; and where there is no workhouse chapel used exclusively for the purpose of divine worship, this rite should not be administered in the workhouse, except to the sick and disabled. But where there is a chapel, the communion may be celebrated in it, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese. Even in that case, however, those inmates who desire it, should be allowed to attend the parish church upon church holidays. VIII. --SCHOOLMASTER AND SCHOOLMISTRESS. These officers are appointed by the guardians of the union; the amount repaid to the guardians from the Parliamentary Grant in Respect of the teachers salaries depends upon the abilities and qualifications of the teacher, and the number of scholars in the school. The teachers are examined by the School Inspector under the direction of the Committee...
