Not illustrated. 1887 Excerpt: .they came from, but are they inclined to be good, upright, honest, true, kind, charitable, loving, joyous, happy and trustworthy people, such as you and yours would like to know, and to be intimately associated with, or are they by nature dishonest, untrustworthy, treacherous and cruel, uncharitable and hard hearted, fault rinding, jealous, domineering people, and those whom it is impossible to associate with pleasantly and happily, people whom you would not want to have intimate with yourself and yours. A knowledge of human nature will enable yon to judge of all this at sight, and to choose for yourself and children such companions as will tend to make you and yours better, purer, more noble and ambitious to do and to be right. If you would know people without waiting to become acquainted with them, read Heads And Faces and How to Study them. This...
