Excerpt: . . . appended pieces and justificative documents. No. 149. Mr. Haustedt to Mr. Bayard. (Received December 3, 1888.) Your Excellency, --In remitting to your excellency the memoire addressed to the United States Government by the Comite Revolutionnaire Central du Nord dHaiti, I beg to add by the present a brief statement of the actual political position of that country and of the facts as set forth in the said mernoire, with the object of obtaining thereby a prompt and clear understanding by you of the facts and consideration of the request presented. It is a matter of history that President Salomon, after having governed the Republic of Hayti for several years, commenced to abuse his power and to subdue any free election or opinion to his own personal will by force and suppression. An opposition to this resulted in the open revolution at Miragoane in...
