Guilford Publications, 2015. Spiralbound. Book Condition: New. From executive skills experts Peg Dawson and Richard Guare, this large-format academic planner is specially designed for students in grades 6-12. It provides a system for keeping track of assignments and due dates while developing the crucial executive skills needed to succeed in school and beyond. Students are guided to build a daily study plan, manage their time, set short- and long-term goals, study for tests, and record their successes. They also get tools for evaluating their own executive skills in order to target their weaknesses and capitalize on strengths. User-friendly features: ? Spiral binding facilitates everyday use. ? Three-hole punched to conveniently fit in a binder. ? Reproducible planning forms; purchasers can download and print extra copies. ? Undated daily and monthly calendars for one academic year. ? Three-year reference calendar (215-217) on each monthly page. ? Online-only User's Guide for school psychologists, educators, coaches, and parents). ?In my 17 years as a teacher, I've worked with countless frustrated, struggling students who are clearly capable of doing better. The executive functioning and coaching components in The Work-Smart Academic Planner are vital to improve the academic performance of these learners. The planner helps students develop a growth mindset and increase their sense of self-efficacy. It builds the cognitive skills necessary for success in school and beyond.??Timothy McElroy, MA, special education teacher, Mountain View High School, Fairfax County (Virginia) Public Schools ?While it is valuable to develop theoretical models of executive functioning, it is incredibly more so to develop practical strategies and clinical tools for overcoming problems in this area. Congratulations to Dawson and Guare for doing just that. This planner provides a set of tools that will help teens with executive skills deficits?including those with ADHD?to function more effectively. Parents and teachers will...
