Not illustrated. 1922 Excerpt: .We reshaped the road as it dried out and re-treated it last spring. It presented a good surface all through the summer and fall until it was covered with snow. I apprehend that the coming spring will be a repetition of the spring of 1921. The road will be in about as bad condition as it was then but by the fifteenth of June it will look like a boulevard. On the other hand, I have in mind one section of surface treated gravel road which is built on a sandy foundation where the drainage is perfect that has never broken up during the last eight years. It gets a re-treatment about every other year, maybe onesixth or one-seventh of a gallon, as the gang goes by, and during the intervening year it does not get treated. This particular section shows evidences of slight ripples. It...
